The Church Age entered with a flourish at the Day of Pentecost. Lesson 5
The First Persecution
Acts 4:1-30

The Church is only at most a couple of years old and has not faced any real opposition. Many Jews and Romans alike saw these followers of Christ as a new sect of the Judaism. The stir created at Pentecost did not seem to garner much attention. Lesson 7
The Second Persecution
Acts 5:17-42

Interest in the Christians, or at least the healings performed by them, has reached a point where the Jewish rulers can no longer ignore the growing movement. In fact, Christianity's popularity is such that the rulers must move carefully lest the people rebel against them. They arrest the disciples and bring them to trial.

Lesson 9
The First Martyr
Acts 7:1-60

The church has been growing more popular and powerful with each passing day. The Jewish rulers could not sit by for much longer without taking drastic action. They found their opportunity when the newly appointed deacon Stephen stirred a local synagogue into a frenzy. Put on trial before a hostile crowd, Stephen's bold witness leads to his place in sacred history as the first Christian martyr.

Peter will not only open the Church era by speaking at Pentecost but also open the Gospel to the non-Jews. Roman Historian Tacitus wrote: "As a consequence, to get rid of the report, Nero fastened the guilt and inflicted the most exquisite tortures on a class hated for their abominations, called Christians by the populace. Christus, from whom the name had its origin, suffered the extreme penalty during the reign of Tiberius at the hands of one of our procurators, Pontius Pilatus, and a most mischievous superstition, thus checked for the moment, again broke out not only in Judaea, the first source of the evil, but, even in Rome, where all things hideous and shameful from every part of the world find their centre and become popular. In accordance, an arrest was first made of all who pleaded guilty; then, upon their information, an immense multitude was convicted, not as much of the crime of firing the city as of hatred against mankind. Mockery of every sort was added to their deaths. Covered with the skins of beasts, they were torn by dogs and perished, or were nailed to crosses, or were doomed to the flames and burnt, to serve as a nightly illumination, when daylight had expired."
